SERIOUSLY INJURED

Was Mrs. Lucien Maltby When She Fell at Flemingsburg Yesterday Morning and Broke Her Hip.

Mrs. Lucien Maltby, was seriously injured at Flemingsburg yesterday morning about 11 o'clock when she fell and broke her left hip.

Mrs. Maltby, in company with Mrs. Clarence L. Wood and Mrs. W. G. Lewis, motored to Flemingsburg yesterday morning, it being Mrs. Maltby's intention to hire a negro woman residing there as a domestic. The women were walking along the street, when Mrs. Maltby stumbled over a bad place in the pavement and fell, breaking her left hip and injuring her leg.

A Flemingsburg physician was called and gave her attention, after which Dr. Woodson H. Taulbee of this city was notified, and she was removed to Hayswood Hospital, where her hip was set and her injuries treated.

Mrs. Maltby was getting along nicely this morning although rather sick from the effects of the ether, which it was necessary to use during the operation. Her many friends here and in the county hope for her speedy recovery.

SECRETARY DODDS

Gives Interesting Report of His Work as Head of Chamber of Commerce at Annual Meeting Held Tuesday Night.

December 4, 1917.

To the Officers and Members of this Maysville Chamber of Commerce. In as much as I have only spent some few months in your midst, my report covering that period of time must of necessity be short.

At this, your second annual meeting since the organization of your commercial organization, I can say nothing but the best for the calibre of men who so untiringly have co-operated with me to gain the limited amount of success I feel we have.

I am really thankful for the open armed reception you have given me since coming into your midst. Wife and I have worked hard and conscientiously in an endeavor to be the most value to you we possibly could, not only have we tried to make ourselves congenial in your midst but have journeyed over the county and into a number of adjoining counties in an endeavor to strengthen Maysville's reputation of being the home of the best citizens in Kentucky.

We have enumerated many of the things the Chamber of Commerce has done—is doing and expects to do in a mimeographed sheet—which you found at your plate, and feel that it covers the report more thoroughly than we could in this.

We are only human and cannot refrain from expressing our delight in the successful manner in which the recent Fair was managed, thanks to the earnest and sincere efforts of many of our most active members. We also feel proud of the record of fifty new members in the short period of time we have labored with you.

The keeping in the organization of possibly a like number of delinquents reflects great credit upon the outgoing directorate.

It gives me great pleasure to say just a word in appreciation of the fine team work our directors have given our organization. No organization can boast a finer body of directors than those who retire from office this evening.

I have always tried to not only look directly in front, but keep a watchful eye and listening ear on the future. You have had suggested to you some of the things we have in mind for the future.

We are sure of one future activity and that is War and then possibly some more War. Only those of you who have been in close contact with the actual workings of the office can fully appreciate what a factor for the assistance of our government your Chamber of Commerce has been. You possibly would have appreciate it more if at some of the critical moment it had been lifted from your midst and some of you had to have closed up shop and got out and hustled in an endeavor to maintain the fair reputation for which we so pride our city. No governmental call has been ignored and through your good graces—some of your sister counties have been pulled over the top. We have gained a reputation to be envied in both the Y. M. C. A. War Relief and the Food Conservation Campaigns.

Some of you men have been pushed mighty hard for financial and physical effort in these campaigns but I believe you would not trade your experience and enjoyment for the value in time lost.

We are about to enter upon a new year with a new directorate and a new secretary in spirit, as the past four months have been invaluable to me in experience and I am contemplating entering this new year with the same new vim and vigor that will our new directorate.

Again thanking those who have been so helpful to me in all my endeavors—wishing for their continued support—anticipating as an enjoyable season of activity with the new directorate and hoping for one of the most successful careers Mason County, Maysville and her Chamber of Commerce ever witnessed, I remain,

Your Secretary,

CARL DODDS.

FOR FIFTH TIME

Robert Frazier Faces Jury of His Peers—Accused Is Arraigned on Charge of Killing His 17-year Old Niece.

Olive Hill, Ky., December 5—For the fifth time within three years, Robert Frazier was arraigned for trial on the charge of slaying Miss Stella Kinney, his 17-year-old niece. The trial is being held at Louisa and is attracting much attention in this section.

The crime with which Frazier is charged was committed three years ago. At that time his niece, the daughter of a sister, had been a guest of his family for several months. On the day she is alleged to have been killed she is said to have left with her uncle, in a buggy for Olive Hill. The horse, still hitched to the buggy, was found wandering the streets of the town that evening.

Searching parties were organized to hunt for the occupants of the buggy. When one of the parties was in a wooded tract near town it heard cries of a man in distress. Frazier was found in an apparently dazed condition. He was covered with mud but showed no injuries with exception of a few minor scratches.

Miss Kinney was found nearby with her skull crushed in with a hatchet. She was unconscious when found and never regained consciousness. She died the next morning. Following the Coroner's inquest held over her body, Frazier was charged with her death. He claimed they were set upon by unknown persons who killed the young woman.

Frazier had had two trials in Carter county, the one resulting in a hung jury and the other in a life sentence being imposed. A reversal of the life sentence was made by the Circuit Court and the third trial was held in Lawrence county where the jury returned a verdict of guilty and a life sentence. This verdict and sentence was reversed. The fourth trial resulted in a hung jury.

The estimated cost of the prosecution of Frazier to the State is placed at $30,000. The case has brought many witnesses and interested parties to Louisa.

THE CHURCH BEHIND THE ARMY

Putting the inspiration of a militant religion into the morale of the American forces at the front is the object of a campaign now being launched by the American churches, which will put a Testament into the hands of every American soldier and sailor. The American Bible Society, which has assumed the responsibility of raising a fund of $400,000 to cover the cost, is getting out a special soldiers' edition—free from the usual trappings of gilt and morocco, khaki bound, easy to handle and to read—a break for the fighting man.

Those who are accustomed to think of Christmas as a milk and water affair will be interested in reports from the front. The Y. M. C. A., which will be one of the principal distributing agencies for the Testaments, reports that the Bible is the most popular book in the trenches, and that the demand far outdistances the present supply. The trials and temptations of war make a demand on the spiritual stamina of men, and everywhere there is a turning toward old values and old virtues.

It is perhaps the emphasis on sacrifice, on the trivial value of life, as compared with great principles, which makes the Christian religion so comforting and sustaining to the man in the trenches. "He that loveth his life shall lose it," says the Book; "And he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it to life eternal." Confidence in immortality, belief in a force stronger than ourselves, "which makes for righteousness," purity, courage, and loyalty—these are the things which make armies formidable, preserve morale, win wars.

A recent number of the Liberty Digest reports Admiral Sir John Jellicoe to have sent these words to the British navy: "Be strong and of good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed; for the Lord thy God will keep thee whithersoever thou goest. Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king!"

Commander-in-Chief Pershing clearly recognizes the significance of religion as a force for the preservation of morale among the troops. "Hardships will be your lot," he writes to an American soldier. "But trust in God will give you comfort. Temptations will befall you, but faith in our Saviour will give you strength."

Men facing danger and death feel no flippancy about religion. Instead, there is everywhere a groping toward light, a demand for further understanding of life's paradoxes and sacrifices. If the Church can meet that demand, it will perform a service for the fighting forces of Uncle Sam not second to that which satisfies physical needs. This campaign, which is to be concentrated into the period between December 1st and 11th, should have the support of every patriotic Christian American.

GLADYS GETS HER

It sounds rather as if Gladys were greedy. One might think she had never heard of food conservation. For on the last day of November Gladys ate thirty pounds of ground beef (how many good beef loaves could be molded out of that, ladies?) besides one piece of beef weighing twelve pounds. (Rather generous pot roast that would make, wouldn't it?) And that is considered, for Gladys, quite a modest meal. For Gladys is a python twenty-four feet long who lives at the Lincoln Park oo in Chicago.

But then, in some other respects, Gladys sets an example to the rest of us. For she only gets two meals a year. If everybody in the country could do without a meal from Thanksgiving till, well, say Easter Sunday, Uncle Sam wouldn't have much difficulty feeding the rest of the world.

How much meat do you suppose you eat between Thanksgiving and Easter? Call it half a pound a day, and work it out for yourself. It runs to a good deal over forty-two pounds. You also consume a good many pounds of grains and vegetables and fats and eggs and milk and fruit, not to mention an occasional ice-cream soda. And you are aren't twenty-four feet long, either.

You work harder, you say, and are entitled to it? And Gladys is a parasite? Not so. Give Gladys credit for being a considerable factor in the education of Chicago's children. Everyone to his own task. It's Gladys's work to be lazy, to coil and uncoil her beautiful, sinuous curves in the sun. All in all, Gladys does her bit, and she's rather an abstemious eater in proportion to her size and weight. No one need begrudge Gladys her substantial semi-annual meal.

CHAOS

Most of the accounts describing recent conditions in Russia have made free use of the terms "anarchy" and "chaos". And many readers may have imagined a state of utter confusion, with the orderly process of industry and commerce stopped, with crime and starvation rampant, with the nation changed to a vast welter of aimless and helpless humanity, with public and private life broken down and nothing going on as usual.

And if so, the readers have probably been about 99 per cent wrong. For things don't happen that way. A rational correspondent of the New York Times writes, from amid the supposedly hopeless chaos of Petrograd:

"Life goes on in an unintelligible way, defying hold plots and amazing negation, cheating all prophets and baffling all calculations. Trains still run, the electric light still burns, tradesmen still had over goods in return for scraps of paper that are called money, and even the postman does his daily round."

It's the way with mankind. Even amid the terrors and confusions of the French Revolution, if we look into calm histories of that event, we find the bulk of the population of Paris, right in the vortex of it, eating and sleeping and working and buying and selling and marrying and dying naturally in their beds, to a surprising degree. Any revolution is more talk than anything else.

GOOD USE FOR A BREWERY

While the brewery industry is being assailed by conservationists as a waster of the nation's food, many breweries are engaging in activity of the opposite sort, and helping to save the food supply. A large establishment in Evansville, Ind., is a good example.

The company has cheerfully defied prohibition by going into the bottling and canning business. It has transformed its old plant and shed half a million dollars in new equipment, and looks forward to making more money than ever, in ways to which neither conservationists nor object.

Now canning apples by the ear load, and is producing all kinds of fruits and vegetables next season. It is worthy of particular mention—a process which, half a dozen or more ears together, can be used for a brewery.

RED CROSS NEEDS HELP

The Red Cross Chapter in your county needs your help.

Chapters throughout the state are preparing for their part in the Christmas membership drive, December 17 to 24, inclusive, in which they will strive to enroll at least 24 per cent of the population in their territory.

Ohio now has 508,000 Red Cross members. On Christmas Eve it must have 800,000 as its part of the national cheer message to be cabled underseas to the lads "over there"—another gloom message to the Kaiser.

You have enrolled in the Food Administration, perhaps you are the owner of a liberty bond, you have done your bit for the Y. M. C. A.

Now it becomes your patriotic duty to enroll yourself and every member of your family in the Red Cross.

Don't be a member sought; be a member seeker.

A WORD WITH WOMEN

Valuable Advice for Maysville Readers.

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and kidney disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow.

Then help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone. Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed—Read this Maysville woman's convincing statement:

Miss Dora Edgington, Wood St., Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and from the results received, I have every reason to recommend them. At times, my kidneys have become weak and have been irregular in action. My back has ached, too, and has been very weak and lame across my kidneys. When ever I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for this trouble, they have never failed to relieve the complaint in a short time. I gladly advise anyone to get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Chanslor's Drug Store, if troubled in that way."

Miss Edgington is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Miss Edgington had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. NEPONSET Floor Covering Neponset Floor Covering freshens up a home and makes it so much more cheerful and inviting. Tough, thick, enduring; lies flat without tacking, and won't curl. The product of the century-old manufacturing experience of one of New England's oldest firms.

ARMENIAN SYRIAN RELIEF—APPORTIONMENT FOR MAYSVILLE

To provide food, clothing and other necessities of life during the winter months for 2,140,000 destitute survivors (latest reports indicate more nearly 2,000,000) in western Asia requires a minimum total of $30,000,000. Of this amount the carefully computed proportionate share that normally should be contributed from this city is $1,850.

The above apportionment may seem large. But should every city and town in the United States contribute full share as suggested the total would give to each dependent man, woman and child a pittance of less than eight cents per day to meet the winter's needs at famine prices. Every dollar lacking means untold suffering and possible death which it is within our power to prevent.

FORT THOMAS SALOONS TO BE CLOSED BY MILITARY ORDER

Fort Thomas, Ky., December 4.—At request of military authorities the Board of Trustees of Fort Thomas ordered all saloons within the district closed for the period of the war. Proprietors of the places are given until midnight of December 10 to dispose of their affairs. On that date the lid will be clamped down. The action was taken after a brief letter from Col. E. P. Andrus, commanding the military post, had been read.

TENER OPPOSED TO LOWERING PLAYER LIMIT TO 18 MEN

New York, December 4.—John K. Tener, president of the National League, announced tonight that he is opposed to an 18-player limit, as recommended by August Herrmann, chairman of the national commission. Mr. Tener said he will make a recommendation to his clubowners at next week's annual meeting to retain the present limit of 22 players.
